

WAY TO PRAY NEWS LETTER

JOSH AND HEATHER ERICKSON

- Pray Jesus would prepare our hearts and give us all we need to go back to Senegal to get rid of our things.
- Pray for Jesus to begin to heal and piece together every detail during our transition back stateside.
- Pray for God to provide Josh with a job
- Pray for healing for Treven and Heather's health struggles.
- Josh and I go to a marriage conference on April 22-26th in Michigan. Pray Jesus would move mightily in our marriage this week as well.
- Praise God for this trial that is literally too much for us to bare and that Josh and I have both come to a place of surrender.

DON AND RACHAL SCHAEFFER

- Please pray for us as we turn our thoughts towards our return to Japan.
- Pray also that God would be giving us vision for the city of Fujimi and the church that He will build there.
- We praise God for the successful surgery and recovery for Donald, our son.
- Pray for God's healing over Don's heart and that God would continue to sustain his health so that he can serve God and his family well.
- Pray for the Japanese people--that Jesus Christ would build His church in Japan.

ROB AND HEIDI SCOTT

- We will welcome two groups very soon! A pastor and another couple along with our first official short term team.
- Pray for our regional Field Forum.
- Pray for the council of evangelical churches and organizations in Kosovo for true unity in purpose.
- Pray for easy travels for Eliana (and Heidi) as she attends a special weekend for high school students at a university in Bulgaria.
- Pray for Malia to "finish strong" wearing her scoliosis brace.

MICHAEL AND LIA STRAND

- Please pray for the reverse short term missions will be impactful on churches here in West Bend and glorifying to God's kingdom.
- Pray for deepening relationships and open doors to share the truth of the gospel as Lia meets with children across the wonder of video calls.
- Pray for conversations surrounding the significance of the resurrection with our friends in BiH.
- Teams from two US churches will visit BiH in the next several weeks. Pray for travels.

J & J

- Please pray for *Felicia, who is in her home country for a couple weeks, to find other followers in her country. Pray her fear is removed.
- Please pray for *Darren and *Sharon who continue to wrestle with counting the cost of following Him.
- Please pray for *David, who works for us at the Center, and has heard the truth from several, to have a heart softened and drawn to Him.
- Please pray that several positions are filled for our team:
 - we need a teacher(s) to come and be part of a co-op committed to the education of worker's children.
 - we need short-term teachers (8 week minimum commitment).

S & K

- Pray hidden roadblocks are lifted as we've applied for our long term residency and that our travel ability won't be hindered.
- Since January several good, language-capable and long-serving workers made hard decisions to obey by leaving their location of service. In our region there are at least 10 opportunities for new long-term workers. Join us in prayer. Think of others around you who may be willing to answer the call to our region.

S & W

- Pray for opportunities to build relationships that lead to spiritual fruit among the people we're in.
- Pray for wisdom to disciple these younger believers.
- Pray for the Lord to meet the various needs present at the shelter where they live.
- A group of young adults which has been meeting to play board games at the L.I.F.E. Center is considering starting a seeker-friendly Bible study.

C & S

- Pray as we prepare for our HA this fall.
- Praises for the adoption process. We will be a family of three.
- Pray for a new chapter and journey for our family..

BRAD & KENDRA

- Praise God for divine appointments and new connections
- Pray that we would be faithful and bold in sharing the hope that we carry with the people that we are meeting.
- Pray for continued progress in language that would allow us to manage daily tasks and build relationships with Egyptians
- Pray for the office to thrive in new projects and initiatives
