J & J

- Last week was a bit of a discouraging week, but praise God with us- His mercies are new every morning- and this is a new week filled with those mercies!
- A student, *Cher, from 4 years ago has returned to my class. We had several very good conversations 4 years ago (along with her 2 adult daughters). We have reconnected. Pray that we are able to return to those deeper conversations and that our Father draws her to Himself.
- *Dustin continues to ask great questions and has such a good understanding of the truth. Please pray that his Tuesday Study with J will answer more of those questions and that he boldly enters into relationship with our Father.

R & M

- Praise the Lord our time in full-time language study came to a close and for continued growth in our French language abilities.
- Please pray for our kids as they enter the 7th and 4th grades. Please ask for good friends for each of them and that daily they would hear and listen to the voice of Jesus over the voices of this world.
- Please pray for R as he continues to lead a facilities team at our church and for M as she heads up a prayer initiative across our field and serves with the TCK Advocates.
- Please continue to pray that we would be able to continue renting our current home throughout our '25-'26 home assignment and upon our return to the field.

- Pray as we are continuing to work with our lawyer and leadership for the long term solution, the best of which is to purchase property and get permanent residency.
- While we wait, we are moving forward with reopening the Center and resuming classes. We are already starting private lessons with some of our old students. Pray for wisdom and speed in finding our new location!
